Note: The Fourth of July parade, organized by our friends in Modesto Kiwanis, is still on. NMK wants to have a float and a contingent of 6 to 10 classic cars with our entry. Brent is working on banners for the sides of one of our trailers. Let Adrian know if want to drive your classic car in the parade.

Report from our June 11, 2020 Meeting

President Robert Husman brought our Zoom crowd of 30-plus to order.

One guest: Isabella Mendoza from Vanguard Key Club. We're going to sign her up as soon as she turns 18. 😊

Robert shared a statement about Kiwanis that included some of his thoughts and elements from Kiwanis International. He shared it by email, asking for feedback.

There also was a discussion of the entry we hope to have in the Fourth of July parade. Brent Burnside is getting an estimate for banners to put on one of our trailers. They will feature the new Quarantine version of the poster for 2020.

In addition, we're working with Karen at i2 prints on getting T-shirts printed. Brent is hopeful we can sell 200 or more. It would be by advance order, with pickup at the store on Carpenter Road. Details still to be worked out.

Birthdays – Jennifer Mullen, George Bairey, Bill Michaels

Wedding anniversaries: Odette and John; Larry and Judy Robinson

Membership anniversaries: Ron Boudreau, Eric Angelo, Dirk Paintedman (since 2001 -the second time around), Sabine Saso, Anthony Rivera, Joseph Cosgrove, Steve Collins (who was a charter member but wandered in the wilderness for a few years), Jennifer Mullen, Jim Graham.

Program: Kirk Brennan, deputy district attorney handling real estate fraud, provided a rundown on the many kinds of fraud and criminal activity that can take place. The victims tend to fall in one of several categories: elderly, disabled, unsophisticated buyers/sellers and owners and recent immigrants who don't understand American laws.

The perpetrators also can be a variety of people, from real estate

Kirk said his office wants to hear from people who believe they might have been defrauded. But they also want residents to be alert to possible fraud.

The department provides information on its website and asks people to use the website to report problems: <http://www.stanislaus-da.org/real-estate-fraud.shtm>
