NORTH MODESTO

Continuation of Happy/Sad $$$$

Bob was sad as he would have been on a 3-week river cruise

Brian said he was happy and sad He had a trailer that had given the family a lot of fun and a truck that has been giving him trouble. He just got rid of them and now has a void when he looks out his back window.

Judy's granddaughter was here in Modesto visiting her from San Mateo. Her daughter-in-law was just tested for COVID-19 last Tuesday and she passed.

There will be a meeting at Dryden at 9:00 am today to check layout of the grounds to see if our event will fit there for next year-AG Car Show.

Speaker-Ruben Imperial is the Director from Stanislaus County Behavioral Health. He moved to his position on March 17th which is funded by Medicare and Medical. The focus is on Prevention.

The work with severe mental health kids and adults and provide mental health with a stable environment. They go through rehab to get well and back to a normal life, by getting their peers and family helping. They see about 8K to 10K people in treatment a year.

COVID-19 they do tele health-helping to get them into a safe and stable housing. 25% to 27% are homeless in Stanislaus County due to not taking meds for mental health and 30% to 40% are due to substance abuse. He did mention that he has not seen any COVID-19 cases. Very low.

They have a warm telephone number is you have questions (209)558-4600
